

NOTABLE QUOTES

Toni Morrison. “Remember that writing is always about communication.”

Oscar Wilde. Be unpredictable. Wilde suggested that “consistency is the last refuge of the unimaginative.”

Anais Nin. “The role of a writer is not to say what we all can say, but what we are unable to say.”

Anton Chekhov. Show, don't tell. This advice comes out of most every writing class taught. Chekhov said it most clearly when he said, “Don't tell me the moon is shining; show me the glint of light on broken glass.”

To sum it all up: Quote of the Month: “If there's a book that you want to read, but it hasn't been written yet, then you must write it.” — Toni Morrison
